WHEREAS, the wellbeing of the employees covered by this Collective Negotiation Agreement and the efficient administration of the Cumberland County Department of Corrections are benefited by providing employees with the right to negotiation with respect to the terms and conditions of their employment;

NOW, THEREFORE the employer and employees do hereby agree as follows:

ARTICLE ONE

RECOGNITION

Employer hereby recognizes the Cumberland County, Superior Officer's Association (Corrections), Policemen's Benevolent Association, Local #231 as the exclusive representative and bargaining agent for the Sergeants, Lieutenants and Captains affiliated with the Cumberland County Department of Corrections, for the purpose of acting as bargaining agent for establishment of salaries, wages, hours, and other conditions of employment. This recognition, however, shall not be interpreted as having the effect of abrogating the rights of employees as established under the laws of 1968, Chapter 303. This Agreement shall not apply to the non-supervisory line correction officers or any other employees of the Department of Corrections, other than those specified herein.

ARTICLE TWO

MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

It is the right of the Employer to determine the standards of service to be offered by its agencies; to determine the standards of selection for employment; to direct its employees; to schedule work; to take disciplinary action; to relieve its employees from duty because of lack of work or for any other legitimate reason; to maintain the efficiency of its operation; to determine the methods, means and personnel by which its operations are to be conducted; to determine the content of job classifications; to take all necessary actions to carry out its missions in emergencies; and to exercise complete control and discretion over its organization and the technology of performing its work. The Employer's decisions on these matters are not within the scope of collective bargaining, but, notwithstanding the above, questions concerning the practical impact that decisions on these matters will have on employees, including, but not limited to questions of work load or manning, are within the scope of collective bargaining. No employee, however, shall be disciplined or discharged without just cause.

Any employee engaged in an investigatory hearing, meeting or interview that may result in a disciplinary charge being lodged against that employee shall be afforded the right to Union representation by a designated Union member.

Disciplinary and discharge proceedings shall be presented within a reasonable time following the alleged violation, with the exact charges specified in writing. Departmental hearings shall be scheduled on the earliest possible date provided that at least ten (10) days notice is provided to the charged employee. The employee shall have the right to counsel at such hearings. Disciplinary hearings shall not be scheduled to be heard on the charged employee's scheduled days off. Whenever possible, disciplinary hearings shall be scheduled to take place either immediately preceding, during or immediately following the charged employee's regular shift.

ARTICLE THREE

GENERAL PROVISIONS

A. Should any portion of this Agreement be held unlawful and unenforceable by any Court of competent jurisdiction, such decisions of the Court shall apply only to the specific portion of the Agreement affected by such decision.

B. It is agreed by the parties that they will consult with each other from time to time at the reasonable request of either, to discuss matters of general interest and concern, matters which do not constitute agreements as hereinabove defined. Such meetings shall be initiated by written requests of either party, which shall reflect the precise intent of the meeting, and shall provide at least seven (7) days advance notice. Said meeting shall occur within forty-five (45) days of said request.

C. The jurisdiction and authority of the Employer over matters not covered by this Agreement are expressly reserved by the Employer.

D. Any provision of this Agreement found to be in violation of any future local or national legislation, shall be subject to renegotiation by the parties to the end of insuring that such provisions are not in contradiction to any such aforementioned legislation. Only those provisions in dispute shall be affected, all other terms and conditions of this Agreement remaining unaffected.

E. Whenever an employee covered by this Agreement has been charged with a disorderly person's offense, a petty disorderly person's offense or a crime arising out of or incidental to the performance of the employee's duties other than an action instituted as a result of a complaint by or on behalf of the Employer or for a crime committed against the Employer, the Employer shall pay the cost of an attorney for the defense of such action at the Municipal Court or Superior Court level or in an appeal from Municipal Court to the Superior Court provided, however, that such employee shall be found not guilty of the charge(s). Said attorney shall be paid at the rate of $95.00 per hour for services rendered, but only to the extent said services are deemed reasonably necessary to the defense of the matter. Any cost in excess of $95.00 per hour shall be borne by the employee. Said attorney shall not bill for commuting time to and from court in excess of 30 minutes round trip per court appearance. Said attorney shall also not bill for court

B. An employee having broken service with the Employer (as distinguished from leave of absence) shall not accrue seniority credit for the time when not employed by the Employer.

C. If a question arises concerning the seniority status of two or more employees who were hired on the same date, preference shall be given in accordance with N.J. Department of Personnel Rules and Regulations.

C. The term "grievance" as used herein, means any controversy arising over (1) the interpretation, application, or alleged violation of the terms and conditions of this Agreement, or (2) any controversy arising out of policies, discipline or administrative decisions affecting the term and conditions of employment including the discipline of any employee without good and just cause. A grievance may be raised by an employee, the association on behalf of the individual, or a group of individuals.

E. Failure to file a written grievance within ten (10) days of the occurrence of the event triggering the grievance shall constitute a waiver of any right to grieve the dispute.

F. The failure of management to respond within ten (10) days at Step 1 will result in the grievance automatically moving to the next level.
